Control 1 Lydia Kang

Control by Lydia Kang was my book of the month for November. I went into it being a bit wary of the campaigning on the back of the book that promised a "ROMANTIC READ" and that usually brings up red flags in that the book will mostly center around the romance, but Control exceeded my expectations by a mile.

Control (Control, #1) by Lydia Kang

"CONTROL is a masterful debut, filled with everything I love in a novel: mystery, danger, and romance. Kang has crafted a world readers can easily fall into and won't want to leave, complete with flawed yet lovable characters. I couldn't put it down!" — Elana Johnson, author of Possession

Control - Lydia Kang

Lydia Kang may be my new favorite author. Her writing is just so tightly perfected, her plot points are very subtle, and her characters are unapologetically human. As a doctor, Kang's take on dystopian sci-fi is refreshingly well thought out, and her world building is thorough without being cumbersome.
