Fat Chance Nick Spalding

Nick Spalding's FAT CHANCE is definitely a funny, irreverent, and politically incorrect look at being fat in the 21st century. Zoe and Greg Milton are an overweight thirty-something couple who agree to participate in a radio show's weight loss competition - they will go up against five other couples to see which one can lose the highest percentage of body weight in a six month period.

Fat Chance by Nick Spalding - Goodreads

I haven't read a Nick Spalding novel in quite some time, and was not disappointed with 'Fat Chance'. The tale is downright hilarious as both Zoe and Greg relate their individual narratives on how they went about losing weight for a chance to win 50k quid in a radio station promotion.

Nick Spalding is an author who, try as he might, can't seem to write anything serious. Before becoming a full-time author, he worked in the communications industry, mainly in media and marketing. As talking rubbish for a living can get tiresome (for anyone other than a politician), he thought he'd have a crack at writing comedy fiction - with a ...
