commonly associated with the BEN Drowned creepypasta. The most well known and widely recognised being a modified image of 'Link' from Nintendo's seminal 'Legend of Zelda' series, modified to have eyes that are variously, wild, dark rimmed or entirely blacked out, but seem in every case to be pouring blood.

I end up using only about 1/4 c more flour. I grease the inside of plastic wrap to cover it with (with both rises). I highly recommend using a lightly floured rolling pin to roll it out--about a 15" by 11" rectangle suits us just fine. Then all the rest is the same. Oh, man!! Thanks, Jenn Hall! Update: I forego the egg wash now.

It's very illogical. If so, it must had happened to him during after releasing his first album 'Tapestry' in 1969 and just before releasing his second one 'American Pie' in 1971. It was not a long period. Then what happened to him! I think what happened in 1970 was giving him a great inspiration of writing a song 'American Pie'. To be continued,
